Funding Will Allow More Than 1,500 Children to Enroll in High-Quality Pre-K

Governor Andrew M. Cuomo announced $10.4 million has been awarded to 25 high-need school districts to increase access to quality pre-kindergarten for more than 1,500 three-year-old students across New York. As included in the Governor's 2016 Built to Lead Agenda, this funding aims to support the expansion of pre-k as part of the State's ongoing efforts to promote early education, specifically in high-need districts, and improve the academic future for all students.

"Every child deserves a fair shot at a high-quality education," Governor Cuomo said. "This funding will help level the academic playing field for children in these underprivileged communities, giving them opportunity to succeed, thrive and ultimately lead in New York."

Funding was awarded to school districts based on the quality of the application and other factors, including district and student need, efforts to target the highest need students, and efforts to maximize total number of children served in prekindergarten programs.

"Research shows that as much as half of the achievement gap is already established before students enter first grade," said Board of Regents Chancellor Betty A. Rosa. "Investing in high-quality prekindergarten programs can narrow the achievement gap between low-income and affluent youth and have a positive long-term impact on children's lives. Giving our children a quality head start is simply the right thing to do."

"We know that prekindergarten makes a huge difference in preparing children for school," said State Education Commissioner MaryEllen Elia. "High-quality prekindergarten programs, especially those that provide full-day services and serve low-income or high need students, help those students stay on track to graduate from high school and, over the long term, significantly reduce costs for remedial education, social services, health and criminal justice programs.

Since 2011, Governor Cuomo has more than doubled the State's commitment to early child-hood education to improve the academic future of young people across New York. Early learning can bridge achievement gaps and provide benefits in the earliest stages of youth and throughout adulthood. Studies from the National Institute for Early Education Research show that children who participate in high quality early childhood education programs have higher cognitive test scores from the toddler years to age 21, higher academic achievement in both reading and math, and are more likely to attend a four-year college and be gainfully employed.

Sullivan County Federation for the Homeless

Director: Kathy Krieter

The Sullivan County Federation for the Homeless (the Federation) has been providing emergency food services to those at risk of hunger since 1987. The Federation operates the only soup kitchen in Sullivan County. The Kitchen Program provides breakfast and lunch five days a week (Monday-Friday). On average, the Federation annually serves We also over 32,000 hot meals. operate the largest food pantry in Sullivan County. Last year, we distributed 6,294 pantries, with a meal factor of 9, or the equivalent of 56, 646 meals. We distribute pantries on a biweekly basis, with an additional pantry on the second Tuesday of every month to meet the needs of our clients. We also operate the only Veteran's Pantry in the county, which provides both food and access to a variety of Veteran's service agencies. These programs are open to the public and do not require proof of financial eligibility to access.

The Federation maintains a 24 hour a day, seven day a week emergency phone number for food related emergencies. Calls to this emergency number are responded to within a two hour time frame. When a food emergency arises, a Federation staff member will meet with the client and provide a food pantry to them. Analyzing the numbers and data of families and individuals accessing the Kitchen, Pantry, and the emergency phone enable us to monitor the needs and access local issues related to food insecurity, thus strengthening our program's effectiveness.

Primary to our mission is to enhance the accessibility and availability of safe and nutritious food. The Federation invites other agencies to our site to offer our clients access to programs that promote healthy living. Hudson River Health Care is present on pantry days to offer clients the opportunity to sign up for health care. Sullivan Renaissance educates and instructs our clients in how to grow and maintain a vegetable garden on our property, with the harvest going to supplement our soup kitchen meals. The 2011 class of Leadership Sullivan (a volunteer program promoting community involvement) created a computer lab at the Federation, which clients are able to access for job/housing searches, etc. The BIKE SHARE PRO-GRAM, a unique and distinctive project now in its fourth year, offers the use of free bicycles. People are allowed to borrow the bikes and return them under the honor system. Able bodied clients without transportation use them to access the Kitchen and Pantry programs, travel to work or medical appointments. We have a "Clothing Corner" which was recently renovated, this time by Leadership Sullivan Class of 2014. They built beautiful closets with labeled bins which makes the clothing so much more organized/accessible to our clients. A local social media group, dubbed "A Friend in Need" works closely with us to assist our clients and area residents with needs ranging from kitchen tables to beds to the building of a ramp that would allow a homebound individual ability to leave her home for the first time in over three years. This year, Walmart Pharmacy was on hand to administer flu shots. The Federation also distributes ESFG (FEMA) and HOPWA (Housing Opportunities for People living with Aids) monies to those with utility and/or rent emergencies. All of these programs empower our clients to make healthy and productive choices for their lives.

The winter months are the busiest time of year for us. Seasonal employment opportunities have dried up, heating season has arrived and many families and individuals are truly struggling. Seniors on fixed incomes have to decide whether to put oil in the tank or food on the table. Families with children struggle with whether to pay the rent or put food on the table. We continue to operate the soup kitchen five days a week and run regular pantries all through the winter, although fresh produce is usually reserved for the warmer months when it is more affordable. During the traditional holiday season we hold a Thanksgiving Dinner to which all are welcome. On the average we serve 100-150 meals on that day. At our Christmas Eve dinner that number swells to approximately 350 meals. That meal and all the trimmings are donated and prepared by Bill Sipos and staff from Mr. Willy's. We also have bike raffles and a gift for all children in attendance courtesy of Toys for Tots.

The Sullivan County Federation for the Homeless is committed to developing individualized and community wide plans for disadvantaged people to break the cycles of poverty. Our programs evolve to meet the needs of our neighbors in need here in Sullivan County.

It is that time of year when people are looking to help others out by possibly donating to the less fortunate. One idea is gather a box to donate to a local agency that assists people in need of foods for the holidays. Other ideas may be gathering household cleaning supplies, or hygiene product baskets.

You can try a reverse calendar count down: put an item to give away in a basket to be donated for each day of the month until the date of the holiday you celebrate.

There are many different ways you can help out during these most difficult months for many in our county.

- Donate gently used coats for a local coat drive.
- Food is always a great way to help. A lot of food pantries receive many canned typed vegetables.

Here are some other ideas of non perishable foods that you can donate to your local pantry. (Also consider pop lids for people that may not have access to a can opener. Please do not donate expired foods.)

- · Choose shelf-stable milks
- 100 percent juice or vegetable juice boxes
- Non salted nuts, peanut butter, dried fruits
- Canned tuna, salmon, chicken
- Fruit cups, in natural juice, unsweetened applesauce
- Whole grain pastas
- Brown rice
- Quinoa, couscous
- · Oatmeal, unsweetened cereals
- Canned Diced tomatoes, jarred tomato sauce
- · Olive oil
- Low sodium soups
- Low sodium/organic canned beans, dry beans
- Granola bars, popcorn

Holiday choices

- · Yams in a can
- Stovetop stuffing
- Matza
- · Gifilte fish
- · Cranberry sauce
- · Kosher items

Thank you and happy holidays!!!

From the Desk of the Registrar

Dear Providers,

One of the most important things you can do for your child care business is create good working relationships with the families in your care

Holiday time is a perfect time to bring families into your programs for celebrations and to help you to get to know them better. Children love holiday celebrations and parents love to see their children happy and engaged.

Plan a holiday party with a holiday craft that parents or relatives can come into your program to assist with. Activities such as arts and crafts, for example making winter themed art projects, decorations or gingerbread houses, is something families can enjoy together; while creating a stronger relationship with you as you interact with them for a social event and they get to see some of your child care programming first hand.

Ask the families to bring or bake a holiday goody to share that comes from their holiday tradition. Families can share their stories of holiday traditions with you.

Wishing you and your families happy holidays and a safe and blessed new year!

Safer Together: CPSC and CBP Collaborate to Keep Unsafe Toys Off Store Shelves

Here are some safety tips for consumers to keep in mind this holiday season:

- Magnets: Children's magnetic toys are covered by a strong safety standard that aims to prevent magnets from being swallowed. Highpowered magnet sets that do not meet CPSC's lifesaving standard are not permitted.
- Balloons: Children can choke or suffocate on deflated or broken balloons. Keep deflated balloons away from children younger than 8 years old. Discard torn balloons immediately.
- Small balls and other toys with small parts:
   For children younger than age 3, avoid toys with small parts, which can cause choking.
- Scooters and other riding toys: Riding toys, skateboards and in-line skates go fast, and falls could be deadly. Helmets and safety gear should be worn properly at all times, and they should be sized to fit.

Once gifts are open:

- Keep toys appropriate for older children away from younger siblings.
- Battery charging should be supervised by adults. Chargers and adapters can pose thermal burn hazards to young children. Pay attention to instructions and warnings on battery chargers. Some chargers lack any mechanism to prevent overcharging.

Child Safety Seat Recalls www.recalls.gov/nhtsa.html

Baby Jogger NHTSA No.: 15C002000

Models: City Go Infant Car Seat, City Mini Infant Care Seat, Vue Lite Infant Seat

Noncompliance: Baby Jogger, LLC (Baby Jogger) is recalling certain City GO Infant Car Seats (models BJ64510 and BJ64529), City GO Base for infant car seat (models BJ80400 and BJ61500); City Mini Infant Car Seat/ Stroller Travel Systems (model BJ72510); and Vue Lite Infant Car Seat/Stroller Travel Systems (models BJ70411, BJ70424, and BJ70431). The affected child seats have information on the labels, instruction manual and registration card that is either the wrong size, has an incorrect background color, or is in the incorrect order or is missing. As such, these seats fail to comply with the requirements of Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard number 213, "Child Restraint Systems."

Consequence: Missing information, undersized text, lack of capitalization and warnings in an incorrect order may affect the consumer's understanding on the proper use of the infant car seat, increasing the risk of injury to the child in the event of a crash.

Corrective Action: Baby Jogger will notify registered owners and will provide a free replacement infant car seat. The recall began on September 27, 2016. Owners may contact Baby Jogger toll-free at 1-800-241-1848.

Notes: Owners may also contact the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration Vehicle Safety Hotline at 1 -888-327-4236 (TTY 1-800-424-9153), or go to www.safercar.gov.

Message from Donna Willi, Executive Director

Hello Friends and Neighbors,

Early care and education can be defined and provided in many settings but very simply regardless of where a child spends their first five years it is imperative that place provides high quality care and developmentally appropriate learning. The long term goal is, of course, life success but the short term goal is school readiness.

Our kindergarten teachers are charged with preparing their students for the next grade level but what if a child......

- ...arrives on their first day of Kindergarten not socially ready for the interactions that they will need to be successful in a classroom setting?
- ...is not academically prepared to begin their Kindergarten learning at the same information level their teacher is expected to begin?
- ...is not cognitively prepared to absorb the information that will be necessary for them to move forward with their learning?

These are the questions our teachers must find answers to each and every day. The child care profession, also referred to as early care and learning, has been fighting to ensure our teachers do not have to find answers to these questions for many years with little success. Close to one half of the children in Sullivan County enter Kindergarten unprepared, starting on day one—behind.

How can we be better at addressing this problem? The Sullivan County Child Care Council is working on several projects to face this issue head on.

- Beginning (pending PDP approval) in February 2017, we are offering 120 hours of classroom professional development, technical assistance and other supports necessary for our child are workforce to obtain their Child Development Associate (CDA).
- We have received a grant from NYS Dormitory Authority to renovate vacant space in our office building. We plan to provide high quality infant care to four infants in this space, which will include breast feeding friendly policies. The facility will also be used to provide a high quality, hands on and visual training model to parents and child care professionals.
- And lastly, we are currently engaging community partners, working to implement a School Readiness Project, modeled after Chemung County. See: www.chemung schoolreadisness.com for more information.

If you are interested in any of these projects please email or call us. And remember —

- Quality promotes "robust brain development" over the first 4 years of life.
- During the first 3 years a child's brain grows at the rate of 700 neural connections per second!
- During the first 4 years of life 85% of their brain architecture is complete!

Yours in Quality, Donna
